Relationship:

For those who are married, your relationship this year is very bad. Since you are stressed with work, it is advisable to spend more time with your spouse. You also need to cultivate an open communication between both of you and try to spend more time with your loved ones. There is high chance of divorce this year if you do not put in effort in your relationship.

For those who are not married, for female, your peach blossom luck is not good. If you are attached, you may find that your boyfriend is always stressed by you. It could be that you are busy with all the good career and wealth luck and neglect your relationship. If you are unattached, your chance of getting a boyfriend is not high this year.

For male, your peach blossom luck is good this year. So, put on more effort to win her heart.

1933, 1943, 1953, 1963, 1973, 1974, 1983, 1993, 2003, 2013

As compared to last year, your luck is slightly better but still not optimal. You need to continue to be strong and move ahead. This year, you need to be careful of blood related calamity.

Health:

For this year, you need to take note of your respiratory tract. If you are smoking, try to cut down or quit smoking altogether. In addition, you need to pay extra attention during the haze months as it will significantly affect your health. There is also potential blood related calamity this year, so you need to be extra careful with your health.

Career:

Like last year, your career luck continues to be bad this year. However, for this year, it is slightly better as due to your hard work, your boss begin to be supportive of you. However, you still need to be careful in performing your task as there may be petty people trying to sabotage you.

Wealth:

Your wealth luck this year is not much better than last year; in fact, it will get worst. As such, you are advised to be prudent and take extra precaution when dealing with big-ticket items. In addition, you are advised to be low-key in your big purchases as it may invite unnecessary attention from petty people.

If you are doing business and you plan to expand, this is the time to halt all your expansions and relook at the strategy again. In addition, you need to be extra careful as there are potential petty people trying to sabotage you.

Relationship:

This year your relationship is still not good. You may feel that your spouse is unreasonable in the handling of matters and there will be constant argument if matters are not handled carefully. You need to be patient and communicate more to eliminate misunderstanding. If this minor argument is not resolved, it can escalate to a major issue. You are being aggressive and unreasonable in your overall circumstances, so you need to seek understanding from your spouse.

For those who are not married, for male, your peach blossom luck is not good this year. If you are not attached, your chances of being hitched are very low. If you are attached, please cherish your current girlfriend. For female, your peach blossom luck is good this year. You may find someone that you like this year but that person may be stress with the relationship. So, you need to foster more communication with each other.

Study:

Your study luck is getting better this year. However, you still need to put in effort in your study to get good grades.
